The first half of 2019 has been busy to say the least! It's been events galore for ALP, there's been industry developments on transparency in premiums, and announcements on two business partnerships and our new charity partner.

NEWS

HARDING EVANS

We've partnered with Harding Evans Solicitors, a well-established regional law firm delivering a specialist range of legal services. ALP will provide After the Event (ATE) insurance for Harding Evans Solicitor's clinical negligence cases on a PAID basis. This will allow them to make early claims for disbursements incurred from cases insured with us.

HUGH JAMES

We've also secured our ongoing partnership with top 100 UK law firm, Hugh James, who we've partnered with since 2011. ALP will continue to provide ATE insurance for Hugh James's personal injury and clinical negligence cases, but on a direct basis with PAID facility.

EVENTS

CONFERENCE GALORE!

Six months in and already five key conferences attended including BIBA, APIL Annual Conference, the Clinical Negligence Debate, the Annual Clinical Negligence Conference and SCIL!

CHARITY UPDATE

The employees of Allianz Insurance have selected Mind, the leading mental health charity and their sister charity SAMH (Scottish Association for Mental Health), as their new charity partner.

Allianz employees have set themselves the ambitious target of raising £1 million to help the charity's campaign to improve services, raise awareness and promote understanding of mental health.

The partnership started on 1 February and will initially last three years.

NEED TO KNOW

TRANSPARENCY IN PREMIUMS

In light of the recent cases of Ferri v Gill and Herbert v HH Law, David Vine, Business Development Manager, gives his view on the importance of transparency in premiums.
